Mediterranean villa of design, privacy and character

Discover a villa where Mediterranean architecture merges with contemporary design, creating a home full of light, serenity and personality. Every corner has been conceived to enjoy the outdoor lifestyle, with noble materials, open spaces and a constant connection between indoor and outdoor. The house stands out for its elegant natural stone façade, whitewashed walls and traditional tile roofs, a combination that brings authenticity and a timeless appeal. At the heart of the property, a clean-lined private swimming pool becomes the central axis of a spacious sunny patio, perfect for relaxing, sharing moments with family and friends or simply enjoying the Mediterranean climate.
